

Letter of Endorsement to Ivan Iliev

To whom it may concern

It is my pleasure to recommend Ivan Iliev as he is looking for new opportunities and new challenges that would develop his skills even more. Ivan is truly an inspiring person that always seeks for solutions to even the hardest tasks. He started working in DANTEK three years ago as a Front-End Developer in my team. From the very first time I noticed that spark in his eyes and infinite motivation that I can say I can hardly find nowadays.

Ivan possesses excellent verbal communication skills, he is extremely organized and independent and he is able to follow through to ensure timely and accurate completion of deliverables. Ivan Iliev takes initiative to go beyond parameters of his job.

I believe he is having a bright future and I recommend Ivan without any reservations. I am confident that he will establish good relationships with your staff and going to give extra effort for the better future of the company. Furthermore, Ivan has great communication skills and he is always ready to help his teammates and contribute during meetings.
